A trail on the south edge of this region splits the watershed. However, just north of it exists a large, low field, and the general area is hillocky.

Whether or not MassHighway has installed culverts, the Blue Hills to the north are isolated from the pond by a combination of topography & the Blue Hill River.

MA-24 serves as a ridge, isolating the eastern area.

This area is downhill.